

Dr. Kathleen Kristy Brooks

Multidisciplinary – Theatre & Performing Arts

Las Vegas, NV
(702) 612-7022
kristylovebrooks@yahoo.com
www.kristylovebrooks.com

Dr. Kathleen Kristy Brooks is a vocalist, actor, playwright, producer, songwriter, and educator. Known as an entertainer extraordinaire, she has performed as a solo vocal artist, actress and dancer worldwide. Her performances include touring with the music group The Platters, starring as the leading female role in the “Jimi Hendrick Story” on Broadway and writing, producing, and performing in “The Soul of Rock N Roll”.

Due to her diverse education and professional experiences, Dr. Brooks has taught a myriad of classes including Speech and Communications, Voice Acting, Film Directing, Music Theory, English Composition, and the History of Rock and Roll. She created the Wadleigh School of Arts in Harlem, was the Music Department Chair at Martin Luther King High School in New York City and was a Professor at the Arts Institute of Las Vegas. She has a State of Nevada Education License and has taught in the Clark County School District.

Dr. Brooks earned an EdD in Education/Musical Theatre, a M.A. in Music Education, and a M.A. in Music from Columbia University. She also has a MSc from City College and BA in Speech & Theater from Michigan State.

Program Types

Workshops, classes, performances, residencies, professional development

Language Proficiencies

English

Fees

Contact to inquire

Availability

Contact to inquire

Audiences

Grades K - 12, Young Adult, Adult, Seniors, Veterans, Special Needs/Disabilities

Venues

Schools, colleges, hospitals & healthcare facilities, correctional facilities, community centers, military facilities

Technical requirements

Contact to inquire

Counties

Clark

School & Community Workshops

Musical Performance

History of Rock n’ Roll

Arts Integration

Professional Development

Becoming the Actor

Vocal Techniques

Arts Integration