

FY23 FOLKLIFE COMMUNITY GRANT

Supporting the Work of Folk Artists in Nevada Communities

HOW THE PROGRAM WORKS

The Fiscal Year 2023 (FY23) Folklife Community Grant (FLC) supports programs with folk artists and culture bearers presented by small community organizations. Eligible projects focus on the transmission or presentation of folk arts or traditions that are practiced, valued, and shared within culturally specific communities in Nevada. Eligible projects include, but are not limited to festivals, cultural events, concerts, and gatherings that bring traditional artists, cultural specialists, and communities together.

Projects must be complete before June 30, 2023. Grantees must complete the Final Report online within 45 days of project completion or by June 30, 2023, whichever is first.

APPLICANT ELIGIBILITY

Applicants must talk with Folklife Program staff before applying to ensure that their project is eligible in the category (folk and traditional arts), and must meet the following requirements:

- Must be based in Nevada (as shown by the address on the organization's IRS 990 form)
- Organization's cash income for the most recent year must be less than $30,000. This grant supports small organizations serving cultural communities in Nevada
- Must have federal tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code*
- Must have active incorporation status with the Nevada Secretary of State showing evidence of good standing at the time of application
- Must have or obtain Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN)
- New for FY23: All applying organizations and public institutions must have a Unique Entity ID (UEI) from SAM.gov in alignment with requirements from the National Endowment for the Arts. This UEI will replace the DUNS number, which will no longer be required. Click HERE for more information.

*Fiscal agents may be accepted in this grant category. To use a fiscal agent, you must have prior approval from Folklife Program Staff.

REVIEW PROCESS

Nevada Arts Council staff will review applications for completeness and adherence to program requirements. Applicants must meet eligibility requirements, demonstrate the artistic excellence of participating folk artists, and establish the artistic merit of the project as it relates to the cultural community represented. Applications that meet all requirements will be awarded in the order in which they are received while funds remain available. A record of the review process is maintained for all applications. Grants are contingent on available funding as approved by the Nevada Arts Council Board.
