

Golden Land Postcards

Sage Alea Valdez

In Nevada's golden land, dreams take flight,
Mountains touch the sky, desert whispers at night.

Vegas dazzles bright, a city that never sleeps,
Nature's wonders unfold, secrets the desert keeps.

Red Rock's majesty, a sight to behold,
Lake Tahoe's blue waters, a story to be told.
Sagebrush dances, as the wind softly sighs,
Nevada's beauty, a breathtaking surprise.
