

Jewish Nevada: What You Need to Know

MaryJane Duvid

You don't know.

This farkakte state is full of us, meshuga for coming here, but here we are.

Beyond the

dentists

doctors

lawyers

professors

(the goyim roll their eyes)

of course, he's Jewish!

There's that typesetter in Alamo

that Austin baker

Battle Mountain weaver

Beatty glass-blower

Boulder City locksmith

Cal-Nev-Ari

Chambermaid

Caliente tailor

Carlin miner

Carson City waitress

Cold Springs merchant

Crystal Bay jeweler

Dayton poet

Elko administrator

Ely courtesan

Eureka swordsmith

Fallon seal-cutter

Fernley grocery clerk

Gabbs realtor

Gardnerville silk-trader

Genoa rock artist

Gerlach potter

Golconda Geologist

Golden Valley singer

Goldfield curator

Grass Valley shopkeeper

Hawthorne social worker

Imlay barber

Incline Village salesman
Indian Hills toy salesman
Jackpot dealer
Kingston buyer
Lemmon Valley chef
Lovelock builder
McDermitt dancer
Mesquite ceramicist
Mina guitarist
Minden song-writer
Mogul mogul
Mount Charleston explorer
Nixon innkeeper
North Las Vegas astronomer
Owyhee DJ
Pahrump proprietor
Panaca card-painter
Pioche milkman
Ruth (Hello!) dealer
Schurz driver
Searchlight mucker
Silver City painter
Silver Peak milliner
Silver Springs tobacconist
Spanish Springs photographer
Spring Creek inspector
Stagecoach basket-maker
Stateline egg seller
Tonopah hairdresser
Topaz mechanic
Verdi judge
Virginia City prop man
Wadsworth banker
Walker Lake gardener
Washoe Valley ferrier
Wells rug-maker
Wendover silversmith
Winnemucca engineer
Yerington farmer
Zephyr Cove sailor...
Mir visa ver mir zenen.
And that's all you need to know.