

Ms. China Hudson

Performing Arts: Dance

Las Vegas, NV
(702) 900-1362
pojazzentertainment@gmail.com

Program Types

Workshops, performance, lectures, demonstrations

Language Proficiencies

English

Fees

Contact to inquire

Availability

Contact to inquire

Audiences

Schools (grades pre-K-12), college, at risk, incarcerated individuals

Venues

Schools; theaters; colleges; festivals; communities

Technical requirements

Contact to inquire

Counties

Statewide

Ms. China is an active member of the Las Vegas community. She enriches the lives of youth and families through culture, character, theatre, spirit and leadership workshops. Her experience as a writer, director, actress, Spoken Word artist, African Dancer, and facilitator combined with her love for people forms an explosive package that creates positive change.

Ms. China is a Disney Musical Theater Teaching Artist and a Southern Nevada Wolf Trap Teaching Artist in partnership with the Smith Center for the Performing Arts in Las Vegas. As an African dance instructor and a member of Olabisi African Dance & Drum Ensemble, she is committed to maintaining African culture and tradition through drumming and dancing. Ms. China has established youth cultural and empowerment programs for the City of Las Vegas, Clark County School District, Las Vegas Urban League and Clark County Parks and Recreation.

Ms. China has written, directed and performed in fourteen original productions showcasing social, racial and political issues. Her theatrical performances include: For Colored Girls, Vagina Monologues, Amen Corner, The Bluest Eye, The Color Purple-Las Vegas, and Dreamgirls-Las Vegas.

School & Community Workshops

Ms. China creates custom workshops that accommodate the needs of the specific group or audience.

African Dance and Culture Training

Theater Basics

Introduction to Musical Theater

Introduction to Black Theater and Literary Arts

Creative Writing & Poetry