About the Artist

Colin Ross

Colin Ross is composer and multi-instrumentalist. He plays a large and ever-shifting repertoire of original music, standards, blues, and Americana. Beginning with classical piano at the age of five, Colin has continued to study and grow throughout his career, playing a variety of instruments and styles.

While maintaining a full-time performance schedule, Colin has recorded and released five albums on his own label, Oharaross Productions and include:

Refractions – original new age piano music.

The Once and Future Swing – five-piece band recorded live, playing a set of swing standards and new songs.

Good For You – studio project with original blues and jazz songs and lots piano and slide guitar.

Refried Boogie – boogie-woogie and roots/blues piano.

Soliloquy – a series of introspective classical improvisations.

Colin is a teaching artist on the Nevada Arts Council's Teaching Artist Roster and a presenting artist with Sierra Arts Foundation's Elder Care Concert Series.
