

From Where I Am

Emilia Reyes

In the vast gold desert region of Nevada, sagebrush whispers secrets.
Beneath the broad desert sky, mountains rise with raw pride.

Silver State, the blueprint of dreams.
From Hoover Dam to the Basin, the splendor of Nevada is an array of differences.

Playful winds dance on the Red Rocks and crimson valleys.
The desert flowers with vivid color, leaving ancient valleys, engraved stories.

Within Nevada's core, mysteries surface, a magnificent tapestry of stories told again and again
