

Beautiful Lake Tahoe

Emma Midgley

Dear Lake Tahoe,

Unlike all the other cities in Nevada

A home

The foundation of who I am now

Constantly changing

Constantly growing

Driving so slow my brain may explode

Ice covered streets, on the way to one of the three gas stations

Where did the time go?

From skiing on your TERRIFYING mountain, to knowing it like the back of my hand

From swimming in your waves all day, to day dreaming of the next time I will be able to

Missing the simplicity surrounding you-

Missing the people within you-

The most beautiful sight

The freshest air

The place I am proud to admit is my home

Home means Nevada

Photo by Emma Midgley