

Letter from Southern Nevada to Northern Nevada

Rockwell Rempe

Think of Vegas, a beloved city

It's bright, bright everywhere

People gamble, gamble all the time

Maybe you can! (If you want to)

So many places, so many things

Look over there! A giant sphere

Those lights might consume trillions of batteries

Did I forget to mention sports?

The Golden Knights, The Raiders, The Aces

We've recently won the Stanley Cup and WNBA Championship!

We even have the Statue of Liberty and Eiffel Tower! (But smaller)

The people up north, come back south!

Oh what's that? Too hot?

Take a dip in the pool, that will get you relaxed

Come visit sometime, I know you won't regret it
