Chidera Eze

I'm the quiet girl
The girl who minds her business
The girl who is well behaved
The girl that doesn't cause trouble
In the eyes of other people, I'm just there
But they don't know anything about me

In my mind, I overthink
In my mind, I am constantly anxious
But people don't see that
I'm just the quiet girl

I don't express my feelings
I don't speak up in class
I don't talk to anyone at school
Why? 'Cause I'm the quiet girl

But one day I won't be the quiet girl anymore
One day I will speak up in class
One day I will express my feelings
One day I will talk to someone, anyone, at school
But right now, I'm just the quiet girl
